

Roero Arneis DOCG

Data sheet

A native grape from Roero area, located north of Alba, Arneis has very ancient origins that can be traced back to 1471. It's a well-balanced white wine, elegant, pleasantly dry and very fragrant.

VARIETY: ARNEIS

SOIL: CALCAREOUS-CLAY

HARVEST: MID – END OF SEPTEMBER

VINIFICATION: STAINLESS STEEL

Service mode and food pairings

How to serve: white wine glass.

Serving Temperature: 8/10°.

Pairings: Excellent all through the meal, with white and red meat, cheeses. Great aperitif.

Ready to drink.

Size 75 cl

Organoleptic notes

Colour: Straw yellow with greenish hues.

Bouquet: A fine bouquet of white flowers apple and citrus fruit. Fresh and harmonious by palate with a good body and fruity notes and a savoury long finish.

Taste: Soft and balanced, with fruity notes and a good finish, persistent and savory.